Your Dancing Goals...Achieved!

Danceworks is committed to helping you reach your personal goals and beyond, regardless of your current ability level - from absolute beginner to professional.

Private lessons are a great way to help your dancing skills whether you want to be a better social dancer, or if you are preparing for an important audition or competition.

Our teachers are superb professionals and among the best available in the UK. Danceworks will bespoke your private lessons to help you quickly progress and achieve your personal dancing goals.

Pick your style of dance

At Danceworks we offer private classes in many different styles. Clients can enjoy the privacy of their own private professional dance studio.

Our handpicked teachers have performed and competed in many dance styles and are all at a professional level. Many have been champions in ballroom competitions, worked in feature films or have been featured performers on the West End stage.

If you are looking for a friendly, safe, private environment with first-rate dance instruction, centrally and accessibly located, Danceworks is the place for you.

Children's Private Lessons & Danceworks Ballet Academy

Some of our Academy students with the Minister for the Arts, Tourism and Heritage,
John Glen at Danceworks

We also offer private lessons for children, for those wishing to learn a style such as Street dance, as well as those wishing to receive private Ballet tuition at the highest level. All teachers are DBS checked.

We have a superb Ballet Academy for ages 4 to 18+ years, plus a Youth Ballet Company, which performs full professional ballets in London theatres twice a year.

Our experienced and nurturing teachers are devoted to raising the next generation of professional dancers as well as instilling the love of dance in all our students.

Private tuition is available with our renowned faculty members on request for all levels, including competition and audition training.
