West End Workshops & Theatre Masterclasses

Learning from a West End professional, “An Insight into the West End” is a musical theatre class with a focus on dance, acting and/or singing. Workshops are tailored to a West End show of your choice, with various different levels of study. Workshops can range from a fun and integrated class to professional class within the musical theatre style. Students can expect to leave with a new sense of what it takes to work within the West End and an increased sense of confidence through learning outside of the classroom scenario.

Classes may include:

- Group exercises and games
- Improvisational exercises
- Learning choreography
- A final performance to other group members

Some of the popular workshops we offer:

Wicked

Matilda

Everybody's Talking about Jamie

Les Mis

Thriller

The Play that goes Wrong

Waitress

The Phantom

Lion King

Aladdin

Motown

Plus many more

Singing Workshops & Masterclasses

'Professional Singing Masterclasses' will benefit students of all levels and abilities. Students will be taught by professional theatre and recording artists who offer bespoke classes that can be enjoyable for even those who are not confident singers. Teachers will help the group to understand their own voices and also the use of their voice in singing as a group.

Classes may include:

- Vocal warm up
- Breathing exercises
- Learning and rehearsing songs

Choreography Workshops

A 'Choreography Workshop' gives students the opportunity to learn different techniques in order to create and develop choreographic ideas. With the use of a choreographers 'Tool Box', they can reuse the skills learned. Students will learn from established choreographers, who will be on hand to help guide and focus the student's ideas.

Classes may include:

- Warm up exercises and games
- Learning the basic principles of choreography using the choreographers 'Tool Kit'.
- Learning how to generate ideas
- Exercises to generate movement and putting movement into sequence.
